

THE GALTON INSTITUTE is a learned society founded in 1907. Its four hundred members are drawn from a wide range of disciplines including the biological and social sciences, medicine, law and administration. One fifth are resident abroad. The Institute holds an annual conference of one or two days' duration and publishes the proceedings. It also publishes a quarterly NEWSLETTER. Membership of the Institute is open to all who support its aims. Application forms and complimentary copies of the NEWSLETTER may be obtained from the General Secretary.
