

The Galton Institute
conference
New Light on Old Britons

The Royal Society
Wednesday 30 October, 2019

SPEAKERS:

Professor Nick Ashton

The climate, palaeogeography and early human settlement of Britain over the last million years

Professor Ian Barnes and Dr Selina Brace

Ancient DNA and the changing structure of the prehistoric British population: from the Mesolithic to the Bronze Age

Professor Sir Walter Bodmer, FRS

The genetic structure of the populations of the British Isles

Dr Lara Cassidy

The genomic history of Ireland

Professor Sir Barry Cunliffe, CBE, FBA

The 'Celts' in Britain—a romantic fiction?

Professor Turi King

Genetics and history: how DNA can be used as a window onto the past

Professor Chris Stringer, FRS and Dr Silvia Bello

The first Britons: bones and behaviour

Admission free but strictly by ticket obtainable from:
or through our website:

www.eventbrite.co.uk
www.galtoninstitute.org.uk