

THE ARTEMIS TRUST OF THE GALTON INSTITUTE

NOTES FOR APPLICANTS FOR GRANTS

GENERAL CONDITIONS

1. Grants may be awarded, on a competitive basis, for the support, in part or in full, of projects deemed by the Galton Institute to be of high quality and directed in their purpose towards progress in one or both of the Trust's objectives.
2. The dates of grant availability and submission deadlines will be posted on this website.
3. While the list below does not give all the terms and conditions attached to grants those of most general significance are indicated.
  - a. The maximum grant available within one year is £15,000.
  - b. The maximum period for execution of the project is three years.
  - c. Projects may be based in the UK or overseas but in the latter case a UK based project director or co-director is required.
  - d. Grants are paid only to recognised universities, research institutes or charities in good standing.
  - e. No support for costs of VAT or institutional overheads is permitted.
  - f. Normally the use of grant funds for the support of research students will not be permitted.
4. It is important that, in the completed application, full details are given of budget, work programme (including as appropriate populations to be sampled or assisted with numbers of individuals involved, staff numbers with time commitment,)
5. In any presentation (in any format) by grant holder(s) or their associates of the work of any project funded by the Artemis Trust explicit reference to the support provided by the Trust must be made.
6. The Trust is free to publish reports by the grant holder in the Galton Review.
7. Should the work in the project lead to an output which has, or may have, commercial potential the written agreement of the Artemis Trust is required prior to exploration of such potential being undertaken.

The completed and signed form should be sent to executiveoffice@galtoninstitute.org.uk . We can supply a Word version of the document if this is easier for you to complete.
